THE DECENTRALIZED M&A PROTOCOL POWERED BY DeBarg

Why Merge? Why Acquire?

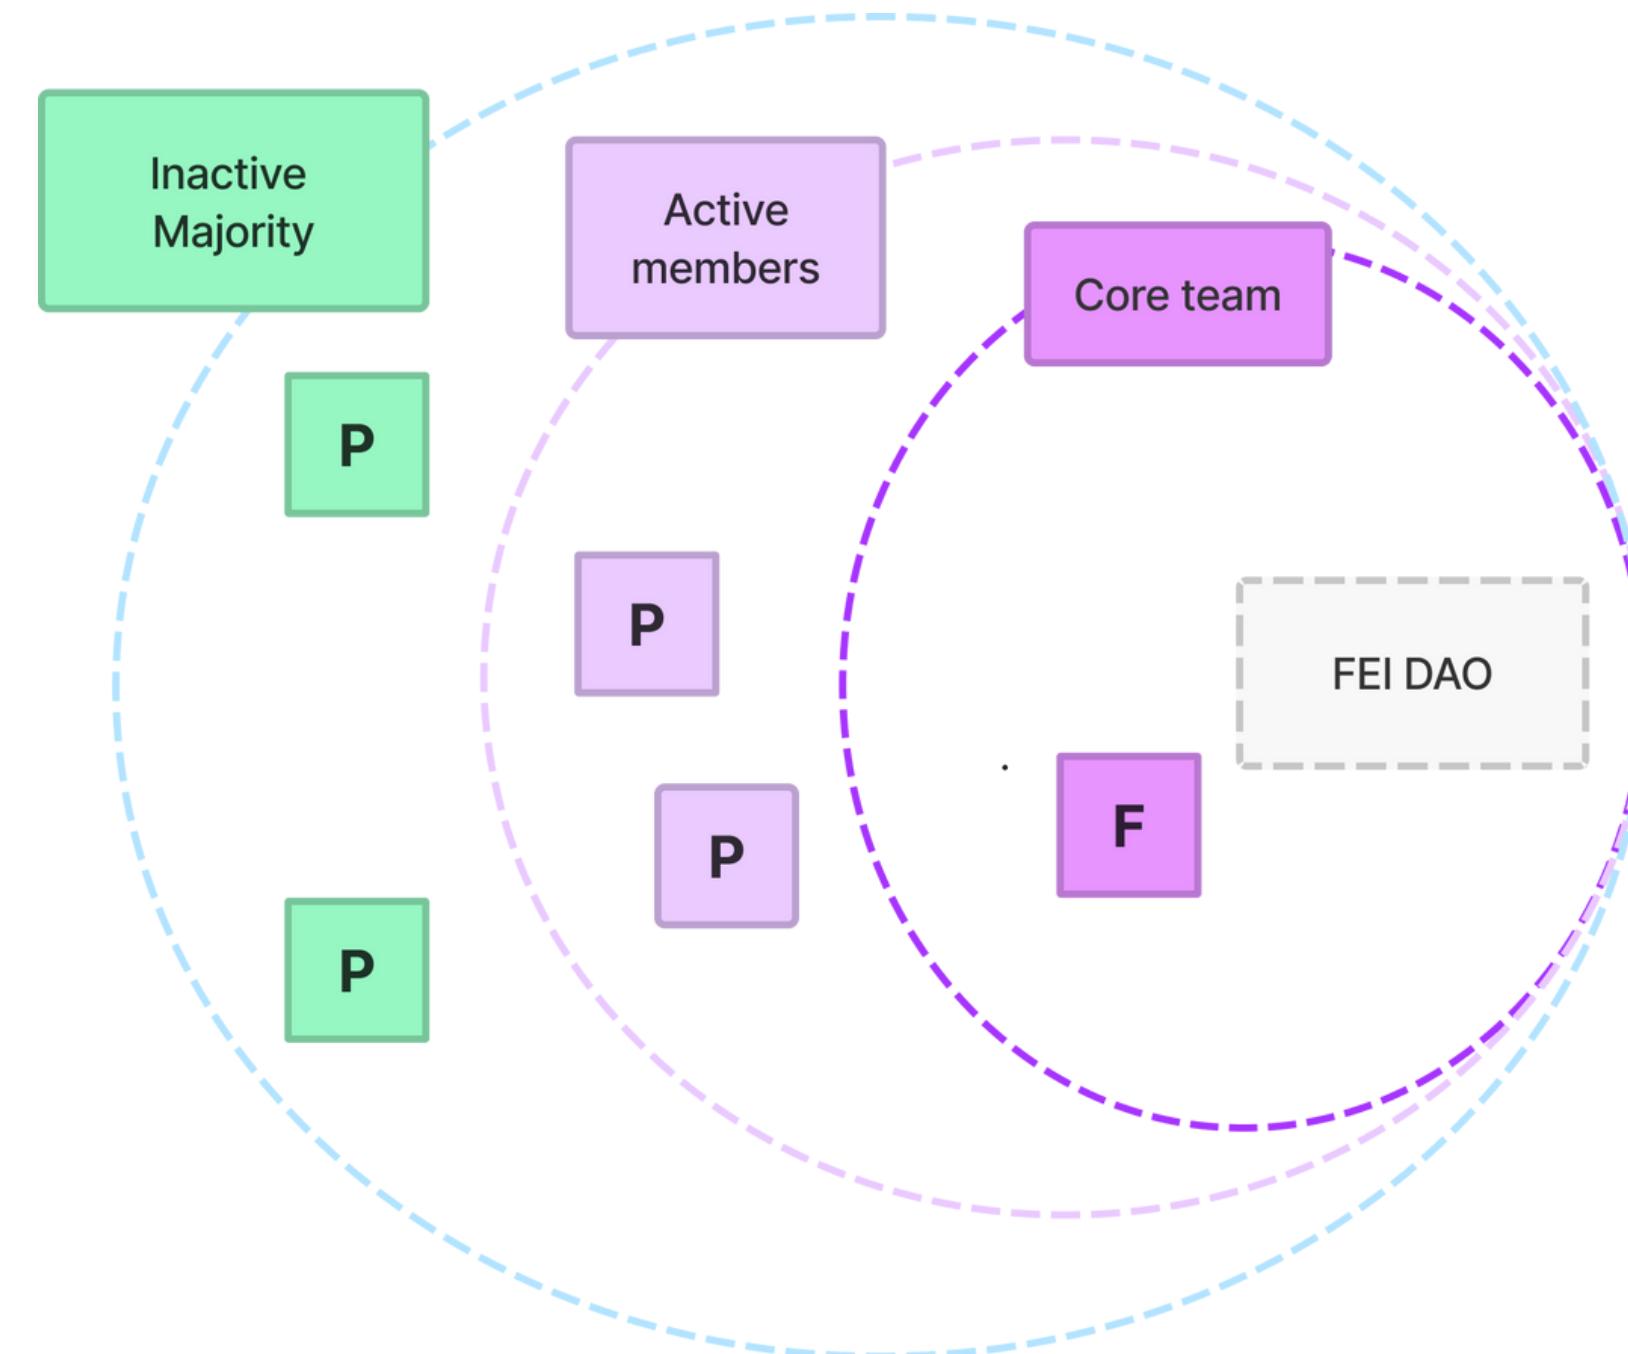

- To rollout new products
 - To consolidate liquidity
 - To maintain effectiveness
- and more ...

A screenshot of a Twitter thread. The first tweet is from Aleks Larsen (@alekslarsen) at 6:00 PM on Feb 22, 2022, via Twitter Web App. It features a profile picture of Aleks Larsen, a man with short brown hair, and the text: "as capital markets tighten and crypto exuberance turns into measured excitement, expect consolidation of capital and talent around market leaders who look beyond their initial scope to drive the next leg of growth". Below this is another tweet from Aleks Larsen at 6:40 PM on Feb 22, 2022, via Twitter Web App, which reads: "2022-23 likely sees more acquisitions than prior 10 yrs combined". The second tweet in the thread is from Jacquelyn Melinek (@jacqmelinek) at 4:00 PM GMT+2 on May 19, 2022, via Twitter Web App. It features a profile picture of Jacquelyn Melinek, a woman with curly hair, and the text: "M&A is coming for DeFi protocols as market conditions change". Below this is a reply from Tarun Chitra (@tarunchitra) at 6:40 PM on Feb 22, 2022, via Twitter Web App, which reads: "This is why @GuilleAngeris and I think an M&A protocol for DeFi will be huge in 2022 😊". The third tweet in the thread is from Aleks Larsen (@alekslarsen) at 6:40 PM on Feb 22, 2022, via Twitter Web App, which is a repeat of the previous tweet about M&A in DeFi.

DAO 2 DAO merger: FEI x RARI

- Fei an entirely decentralized stablecoin
- Rari Capital is a powerful open interest rate protocol
- Reason of Merge was to bootstrap liquidity for the Fuse pools

InterDAO Bilateral Negotiation: FEI and RARI

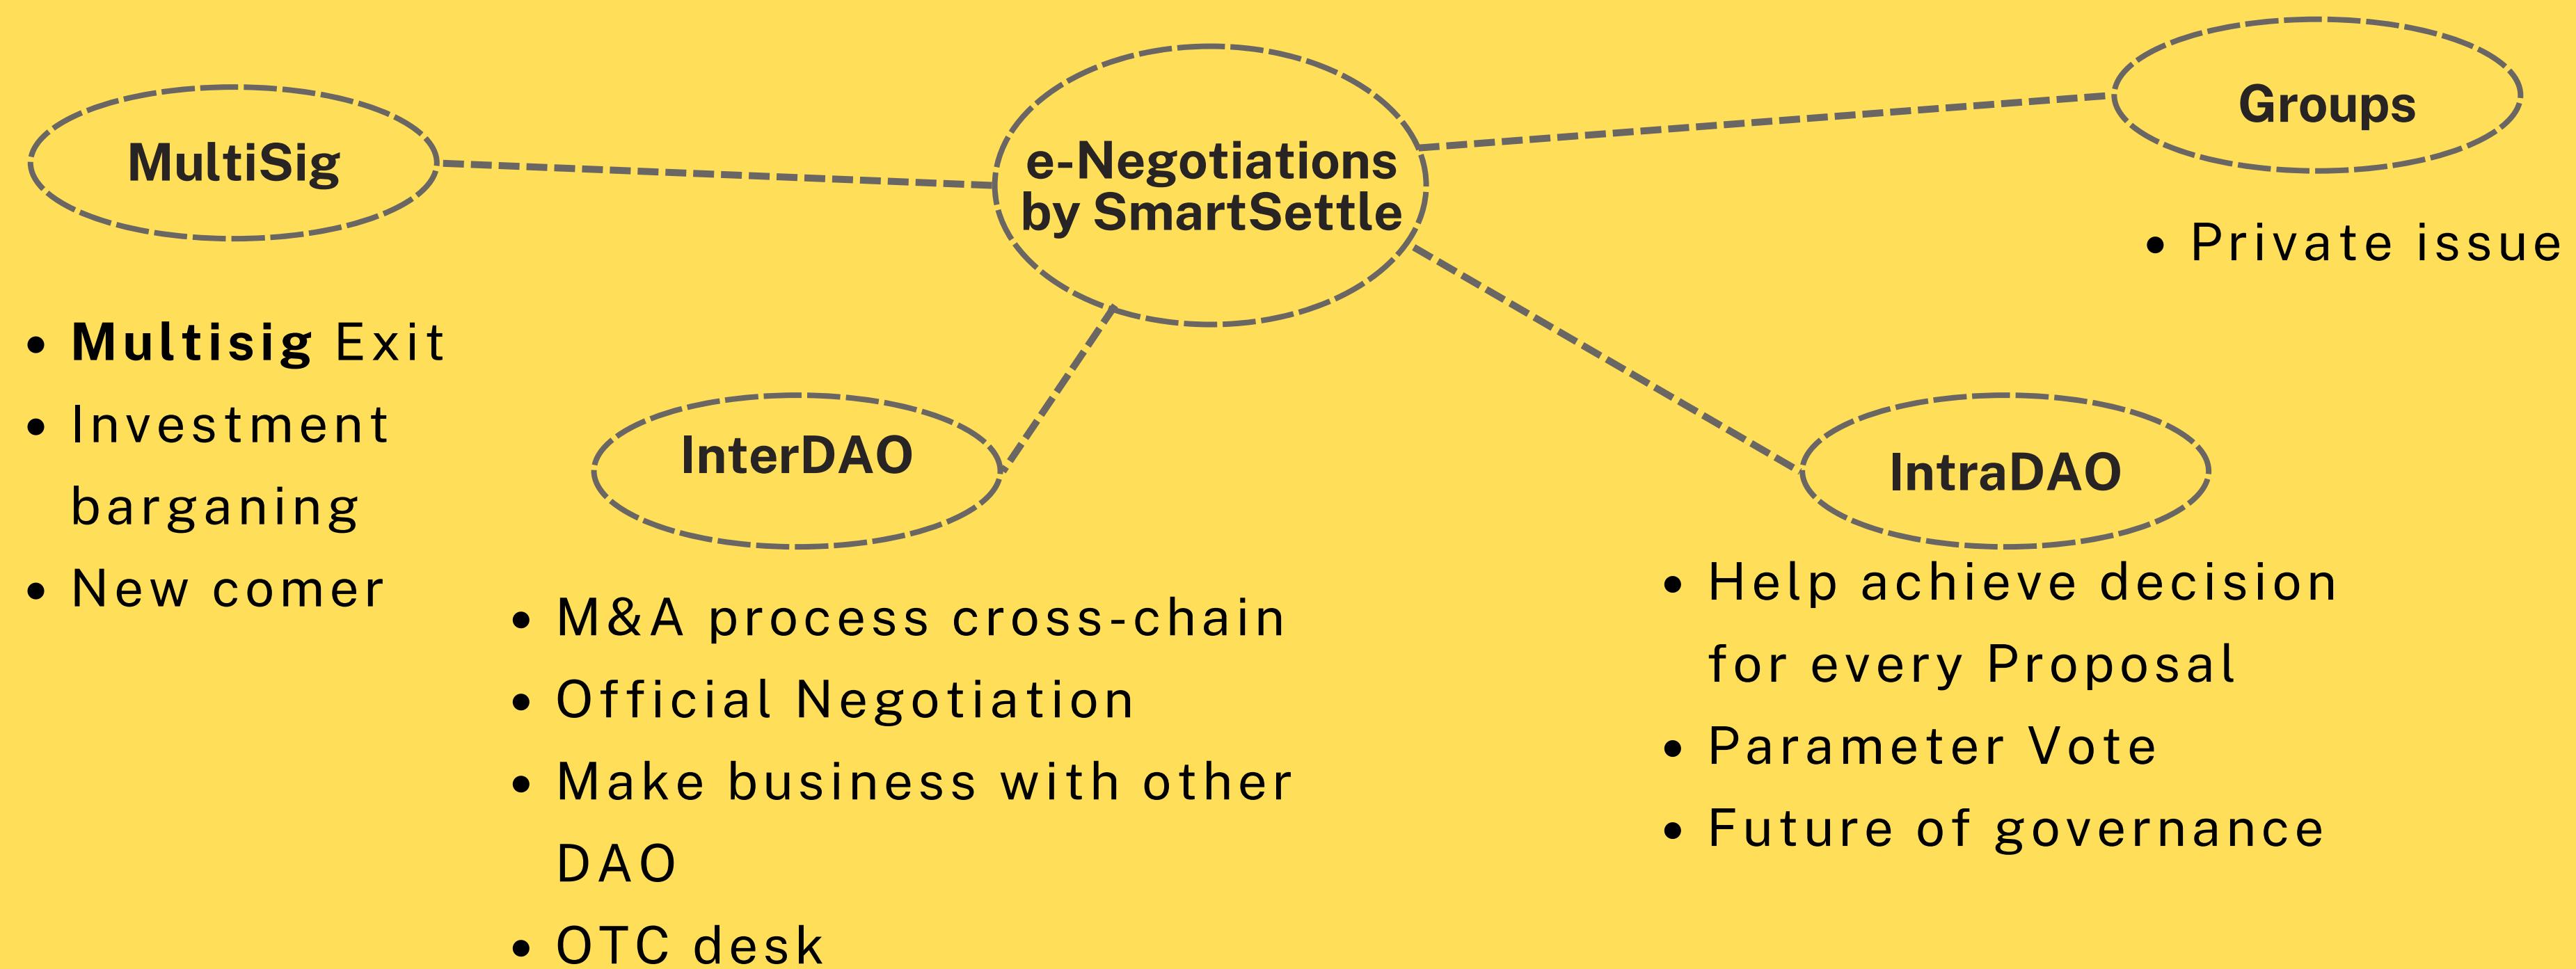

Merge Execution model

- If negotiators agree over Bargaining,
- Funding Period: Period in which token holders of both DAOs need to accept allowance of their tokens.
- If more than 50% of token holders allow, then tokens are temporarily burnt for a newly minted locked token.
- Vesting period: Period during which the new post-merge token will stay locked for the duration of the period.
- It is a period to satisfy the counterpart.
- If, during this period, counterparts are no longer satisfied, they can call Kleros.
